

How to get to HKU from the Airport?

- (By MTR: Airport – Hong Kong Station – Central Station – HKU Station)
At Hong Kong International Airport, the easiest way to get to the city is by the Airport Express train at the arrival terminal. You get off the train at the last stop ("Hong Kong Station"). At Hong Kong station, follow the sign in the MTR station to walk to Central station, take the train in Island Line and get off at HKU station. The two stations are connected by underground tunnels and automated walkways. If you want to go to the main campus, you go to Exit A and take the lift to Exit A2. The whole journey to HKU will take about 45 minutes and costs about HKD120.

- (By Taxi: Airport - HKU)
Another way from the airport to HKU is by taxi, which will take about 35 minutes and cost about HKD400. Note that drivers take cash only (rather than credit cards) and you should take RED taxis, available at Airport Taxi Station.
